Kiwanis Clubs Will Sponsor Harbor Scholarship Banquet

The Kiwanis Clubs of Lomita, San Pedro, and Wilmington will sponsor the first Harbor College scholarship recognition banquet Tuesday at 7 p.m. in the campus center, college President Wendell C. Black said today.

The banquet will honor 26 full-time Harbor students who this semester have been appointed to the president's honor list for scholastic achievement.

In order to be on the list, a student must have completed 12 or more units of work the preceding semester with a minimum grade point average of 3.5, or A-minus.

The banquet also will honor three Kiwanis members, chosen by each of the local clubs, who will receive "outstanding citizen" awards because of significant contributions to civic progress in the community.

The San Pedro club will be host. The evening has been designated "ladies' night," and members will take their wives.

Dr. K. Bhaskara Rao, regional executive for the World University Service, will be the featured dinner speaker and will discuss the subject, "Scholarship: Recognition or Responsibility?"

Seven top-ranking students on the honor list will be awarded scholarships provided by the Harbor Associated Student Organization for use at the college next semester.

They are Ronald Jenkins, San Pedro; Nellie Martinis, San Pedro; Madelaine McNeal, 25900 Walnut St., Lomita; Buena Melz, 4 Rockinghorse Road, Rolling Hills; Roberta Schultze, 10045 S. Harvard, Los Angeles; Jane D. Simon, San Pedro; and Jane Wood, 27149 Shorewood, Rolling Hills.

Other full-time students on the honor list are: David B. Whit-cher, Gardena; Joann Dawkins and Walter Miyashiro, Los Angeles; Mary Lee, Long Beach; Neva Marie Smith, Palos Verdes; Mary Alice Fraser, Oculia Martinez, Mary Ellen Munroe, and Catherine Pisanio, San Pedro, and Taeko Horii, George Leroy Reeves, Amy Sanaki, Janice Shirley, and George Yoshioka, Torrance; and Nancy Arnold, Ronald J. Olan, and Marlene Perry, Wilmington.

DALE BERKSTRESSER

Berkstresser Promoted by Pacific Tel.

Dale Berkstresser of 2217 17th St. has been appointed plant operating assistant for Pacific Telephone in downtown Los Angeles, the company announced this week.

Berkstresser will assist the district toll-maintenance superintendent in maintenance and operation of private line, telephone, and telegraph-toll services.

He started his career in Los Angeles in 1947 as a splicer's helper. Succeeding appointments included those of lineman, transmission man, and chief transmission man.

He and his wife, Elsie, have two children, Dale Lynn, 6 who attends Arlington School, and David Eric, 3.

Supervisor Kenneth Hahn's blast against a proposed $1,000,000 raid on tideland-oil money to refurbish the old Pico House in Los Angeles Plaza into a modern hotel under the guise of restoring an historic shrine resulted in the proposal being withdrawn by its sponsor, Supervisor Ernest E. Debs.

"Claims are being made that the state is restoring the plaza as an historical monument—but the truth is that the restored Pico House will be a commercial hotel operated by the Sheraton Park Corp. It will be competing with other hotels and people will certainly have to pay to stay there," Hahn declared in opposing the resolution.

He and his wife Gertrude have three sons, Ray, Robert, and Douglas. They live at 137 Rocky Point Rd., Palos Verdes Estates.

In an effort to create a close tie between a home's interior and its surroundings, some architects use the same lumber for siding and interior paneling. Cedar siding makes an interesting shadow pattern inside the home.

C. R. Schneider 25 Years with Union Carbide

C. R. Schneider recently reached his 25 year mark of service with Union Carbide Chemicals Co. He has been assistant superintendent for the Torrance plant since its beginning in 1955.

Schneider received commendation of the directors at a 25-year banquet in Charleston, W. Va.

Schneider began with Carbide in 1934 in South Charleston. In 1947 he was promoted to area supervisor of the North Chemical area in Texas City, Tex. In 1955 he moved to his present position as assistant superintendent of the Torrance plant.
